A short break in Portsmouth is even more appealing this autumn with special offers for visitors to the UK's only island city. There is plenty to enjoy for everyone whatever their interests including a brisk three kilometre walk along the seafront to blow away the cobwebs. Southsea Common, adjacent to the popular seafront promenade and beach, is an ideal open space for kite flying, picnics and ball games. There is a children's play area, beach volleyball courts, tennis, pitch and putt and one of the country's original skateparks.

The city's world-class attractions on the seafront include the D-Day Story and Southsea Castle, and just a stroll away is Portsmouth Historic Dockyard where you will also find The Mary Rose museum. Gunwharf Quays offers designer shopping, a cinema and restaurants, as well as the 170-metre landmark Emirates Spinnaker Tower.
