

David Bell

David has over 20 years' experience in the aviation industry focusing primarily on route development for both airports and airlines. David's aviation career started back in 2002 with former British Airways low-cost airline Go-fly, shortly before being purchased by easyJet. David spent six years in Network Planning with easyJet, and since then has had roles with Qantas and IAG. David also spent time at Sydney and Venice airports within their airline development teams before joining London Gatwick airport's aviation development team in 2021, focusing mainly on long haul route development.
